

Breaking The Chains Fdn. is accepting these and other In-Kind Donations

Contact Amy Hart (434) 260-0539 amyhart.btcf@gmail.com

Professional Services (Pro Bono)

- Legal counsel for contracts or compliance.
- Accounting and annual audit and tax assistance.
- Marketing: Graphic Design and social media assistance.
- Media & Production Support: Videographers, filmmakers, photographers and editors.
- Printing Services for invitations, business cards, etc. and event t-shirts and swag.

Tangible Goods for Artistic & Movement Programming

- Art Supplies: New, unused canvases, paints, brushes, sketchbooks, and journaling materials for healing programs and day camp.
- Movement & Dance Gear: Clean, functional yoga mats for mind/body wellness events.
- Audio/Visual Equipment: Modern, functioning Bluetooth speakers, microphones, projector, monitors, televisions, video cameras, and lighting equipment to support events.

Goods for Direct Client Distribution

- Non-perishable food and water for events.
- New clothing, shoes, and winter coats.
- Hygiene kits and personal care items.
- School supplies and backpacks for youth.

Facilities & Event Support

- Venue Space: Dance studios, theater spaces, or community gallery halls donated for rehearsals, workshops, and exhibitions.
- Catering and beverages for events.
- Media airtime or print advertising space.
- Auction items like hotel stays or gift cards.

Survivor & Wellness Care Items

- Beauty, Skincare & Hair Products: High-quality, clean, or organic skincare, cosmetics and hair products for Power Crew beauty experiences for cancer survivors.
- Culinary Art Event Supplies: Kitchen tools, ingredients, or chef appearances for our Canvas of Culinary Art programs.

Silent Auction & Raffle Items

- Tangible Goods: High-quality retail items, artwork, gift baskets, electronics, and jewelry suitable for fundraising events.
- Experiences & Travel: Donated hotel stays, vacation rentals, airline miles, spa packages, and tickets to sporting events, concerts, or local theater performances.
- Gift Certificates: Vouchers for local restaurants, wellness services, boutiques, or specialized artistic workshops.